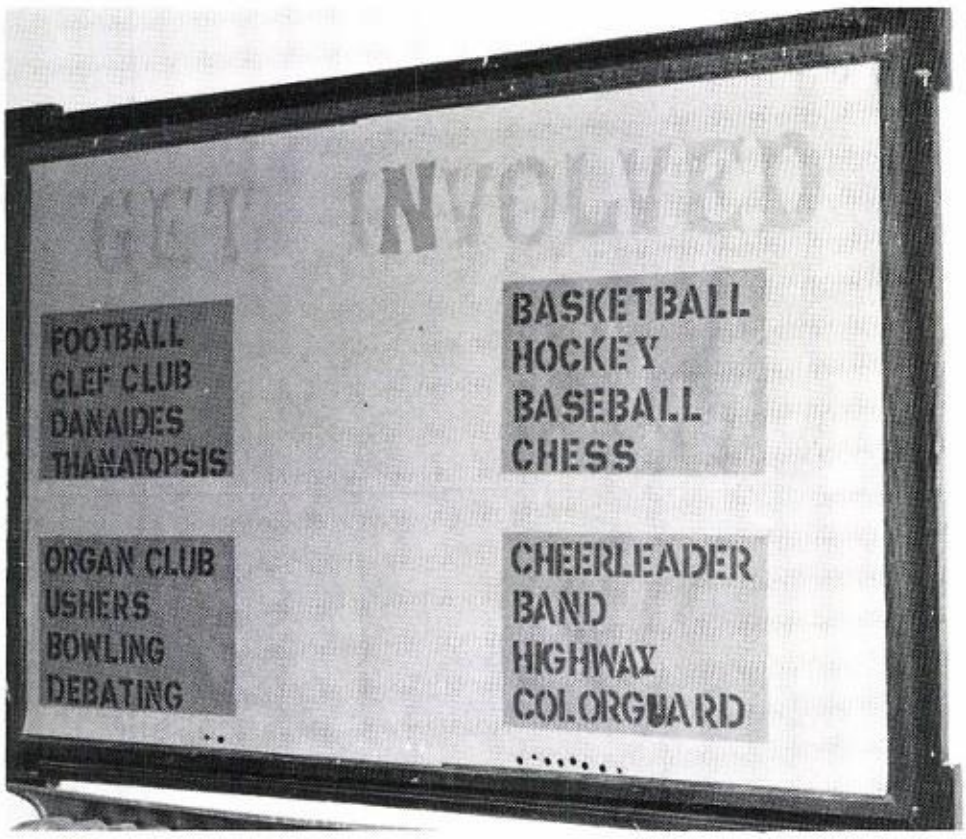
GET THE SPIRIT!



FRANKFORD SPIRIT

We shall always remember Frankford,
Frankford High School is the name.
There are many other high schools,
But they're just not quite the same.
Let us quote you one example,
So that you'll know what we mean.
It's the spirit, yes the spirit,
The like of which you've never seen.

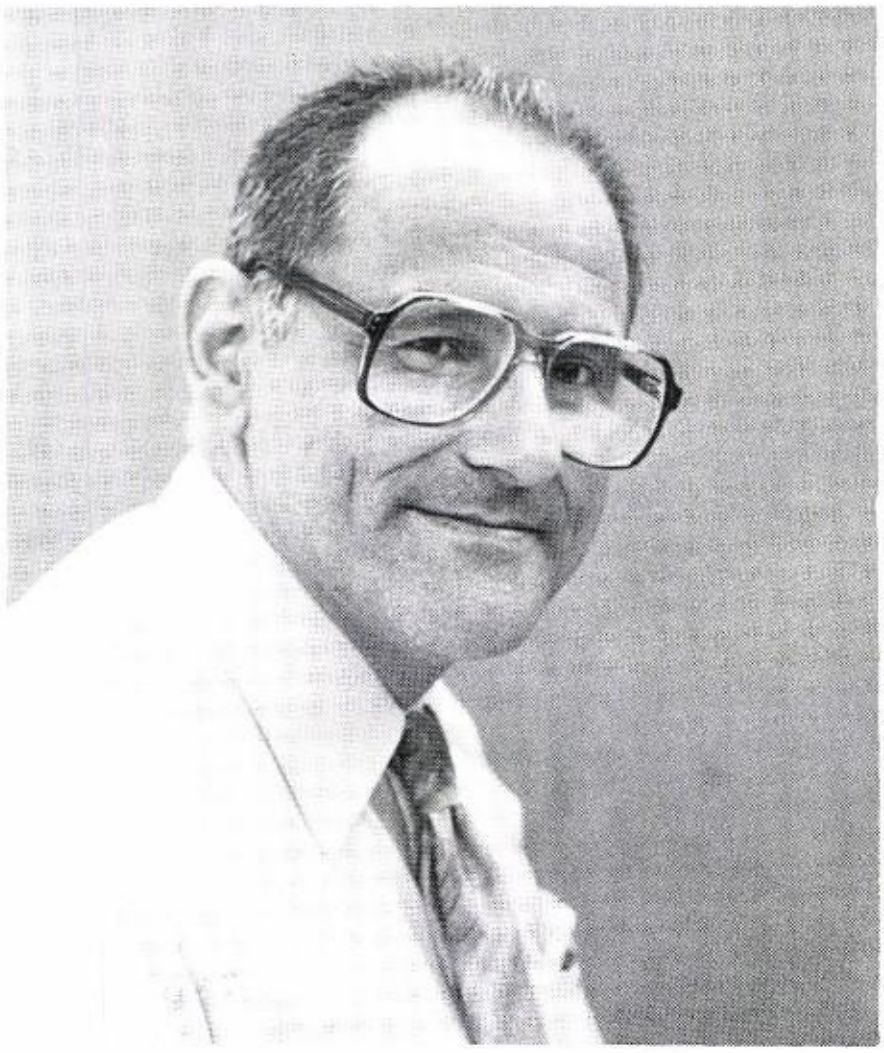
DEDICATION



MR. LEONARD MIRESSE

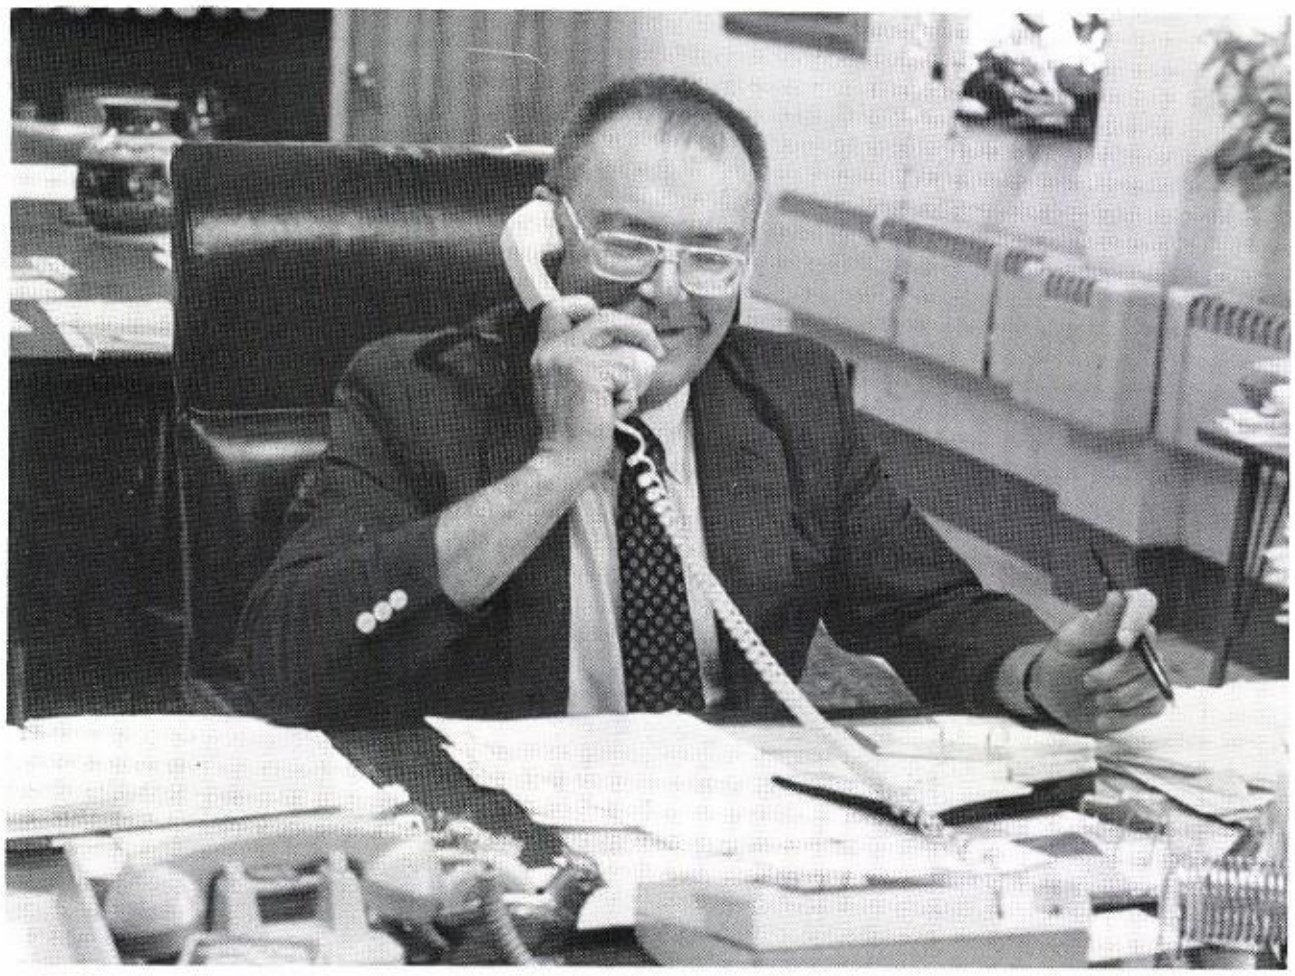
This person's spirit and dedication has kept growing inside each and every one of us. Whether he is leading the pep rallies, his classroom demeanor, echoing announcements over the loud speaker, or at the game leading the cheers, the spirit is bellowing inside of him.

It is with gratitude and respect that we, the Record Book Staff representing the Class of 1988, have proudly dedicated our book to Mr. Leonard Miresse, with the hope that the entire Frankford community will follow his admirable example.

SCHOOL SHOW PARTICIPANT

FINANCIAL DIRECTOR

PRINCIPAL



MR. JAMES R. PETERS

Dear Graduates:

I hope as you review your years at Frankford, you will be pleased with the results. I urge you to build upon the education you have received. Continue your studies at another institution: whether it be trade school, nursing school, or a two or four year college. You will be more valuable to your employer and feel better about yourself with additional education. It sets you apart from the crowd.

Continue to take an active interest in Frankford by joining the Alumni Association. You will receive two mailings a year which keep you informed about the school, its faculty, and your classmates.

Best Wishes,

JAMES R. PETERS

VICE-PRINCIPALS

MS. VICTORIA PICCONE

Often we look toward the future with uncertainty and dream of the way we would like things to be. No one can predict that course of future events, but with careful planning and preparation a dream can become a reality. The successful completion of your high school education at Frankford is a reality. Now you must actively pursue your goals beyond high school.

Your future plans must be developed and evaluated carefully. Continue to dream but remember that it is your responsibility to make your dreams come true.

I sincerely wish each of you personal happiness and every success.

VICTORIA A. PICCONE

Two roads diverged in a wood and I —
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost
"The Road Not Taken"

It is not necessary for people to do the same thing in the same way. Recognize the fact that individual differences do have the potential to bring diverse energies together for the common good of our society.

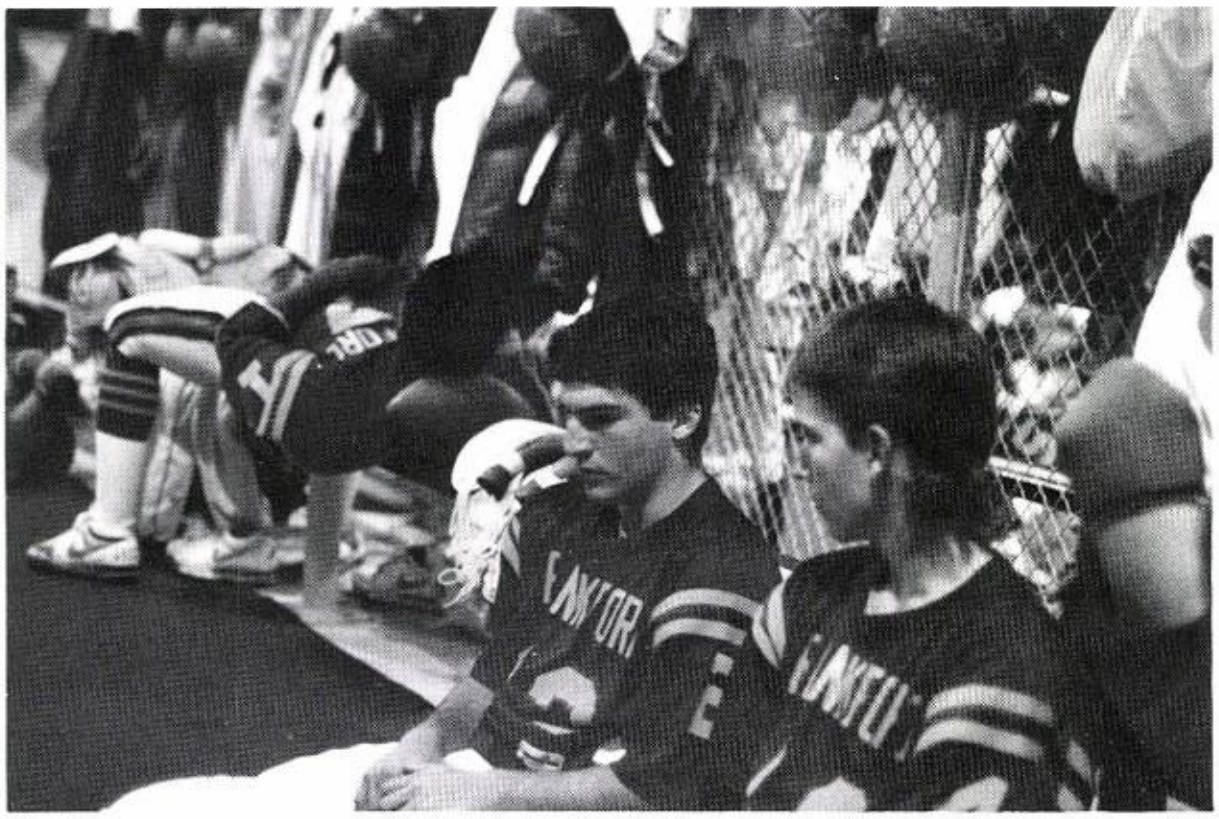
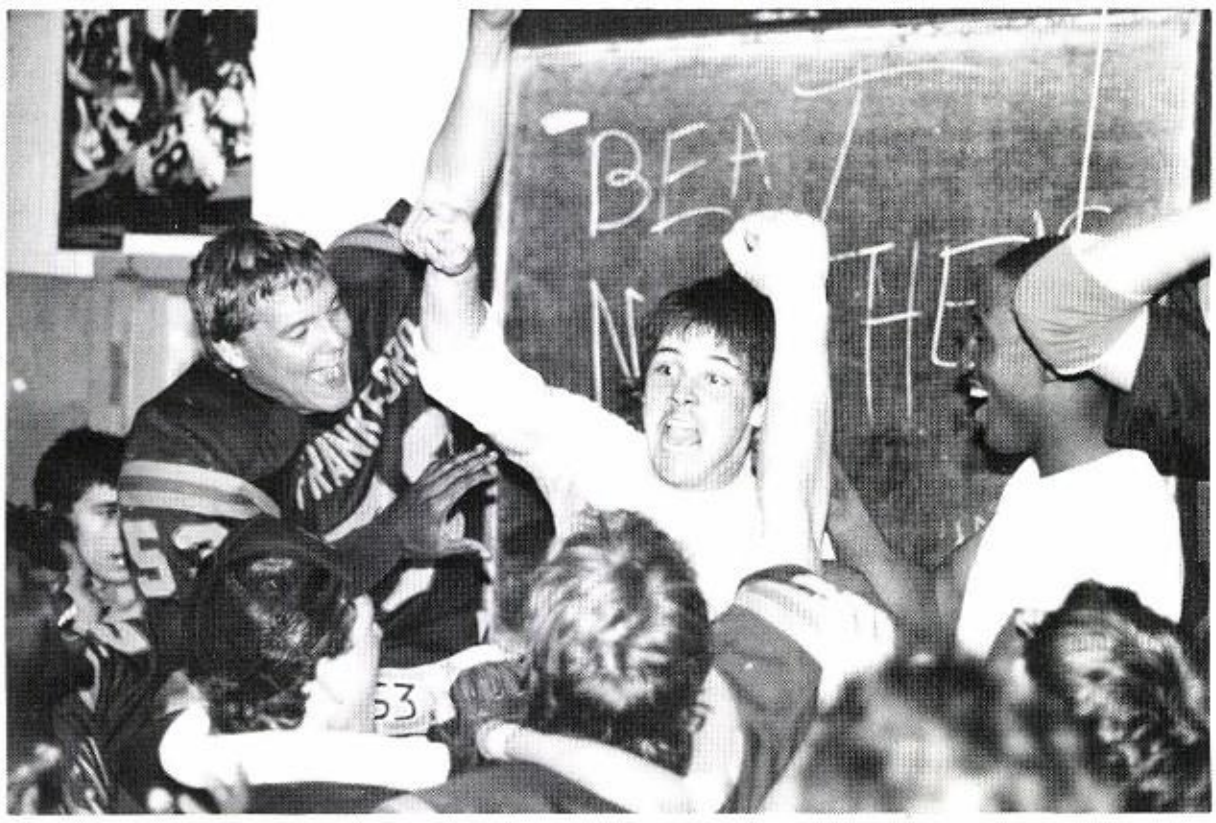
GETTING READY!



HAPPINESS IS WINNING!



FRANKFORD

The Pioneers didn't miss a beat under the Public League Coach of the Year John McAneney, who produced a surprise title last year with a group of overachievers. With 14 of those starters returning, many of them on the defense. Angelo's return should be very successful, despite his public worries about his club's ability to learn his new systems.

"That's Al's style, to downplay his team's ability publically," laughed Washington Coach Ron Cohen, "He's sandbagging everyone again. He's a master at it."

Though many unsung heroes are back, even Angelo and his tradition will not be enough to replace Kevin McCoy, the Public League Player of the Year who merely ran for more yards and touchdowns than anybody in the league last season.

Sean Parish, who was being groomed as McCoy's replacement, has an injured ankle and is out indefinitely. "He's getting it X-rayed today (Sept. 10)," Angelo said. "So far, he hasn't been able to do much of anything. I still don't know much about him."

Darren Swift will initially take on the unenviable job of trying to make people forget McCoy. Harun Reed will provide reinforcement in the backfield. The real key may be how fast new quarterback Terent Morrison grasps Angelo's complicated offensive schemes, which run in four different series of plays.

Angelo will depend heavily on a slew of two-way players, many of whom play on the line. The maturing of the defense was a key to the title run last year, when the Pioneers allowed only four touchdowns in their last six wins. Mark Dooling, Scott Bonk, Duane Gould and Dave Samuels return to anchor both sides of the line of scrimmage. Samuels and Corey Jaynes, another two-way player, are also big targets on offense as receivers.

Jaynes was a "designated touchdown scorer" last season. He caught only 11 passes all year, but eighth of them were for touchdowns. His 50-yard TD reception late in the game against Washington may have been the season-saving play of '86. It enabled the Pioneers to squeeze past the Eagles, 14-13, in a game many later called the real Public League championship

A strong group of linebackers, consisting of Swift, Harun Reed, Bob Higginson, and Jason Cebular, and a secondary led by Tyrone Garrison round out the defense.

"I'm happy with how the kids are picking things up so far," Angelo said. "There's a new numbering system, new calls, the works. But they're responsive, and they're learning."

Seesaw battle ends in win for Pioneers

"It was like a giant ping-pong game," said the Frankford coach. "Bink, bink, back and forth, back and forth."

When the bink, bink was over Wednesday, Frankford had ping-ponged its way to a 2-0 Public League victory over Northeast that kept the Pioneers' (7-0-0 league, 8-2-0 overall) stranglehold on Division A secure. Northeast (5-2-0, 6-2-0) remained locked in second place.

Senior center-forward Rob MacDonald scored both second-half goals for Frankford. His header ball in the 43d minute of play off Tom McCullom's crossing pass gave Frankford all the goals it would need on a windy afternoon.

MacDonald added the insurance goal in the 66th minute of play when he went one-on-one with the defense and beat Vikings goalie Tom Cross with a booming shot into the right corner of the net.

MacDonald leads the Pioneers in scoring this season with 11 goals. With four games remaining in the regular season, he should equal or surpass his last-season total of 15.

"We outran Northeast today because we're in such good shape," said MacDonald. "I got a pretty good cross on the first goal, and because of my size in the middle, I get a lot of headers."

Honeyman out numbered two ro one vs. Lincoln.

Public League action last week featured Wednesday's matchup of first-place Frankford and second-place (at the time) Lincoln, neither of which had lost a division game this season.

Behind a second-half goal by Tom Honeyman and shutout goal-tending from Jon Syzc, the Pioneers prevailed, 1-0, in a game marred by a strong wind.

The reams left the field at intermission deadlocked at 0-0. But Honeyman took care of things about 9 minutes into the second half, when he beat his defender at midfield, and fired a 30-yard shot past Jeff Maconaghy to give the Pioneers the lead.

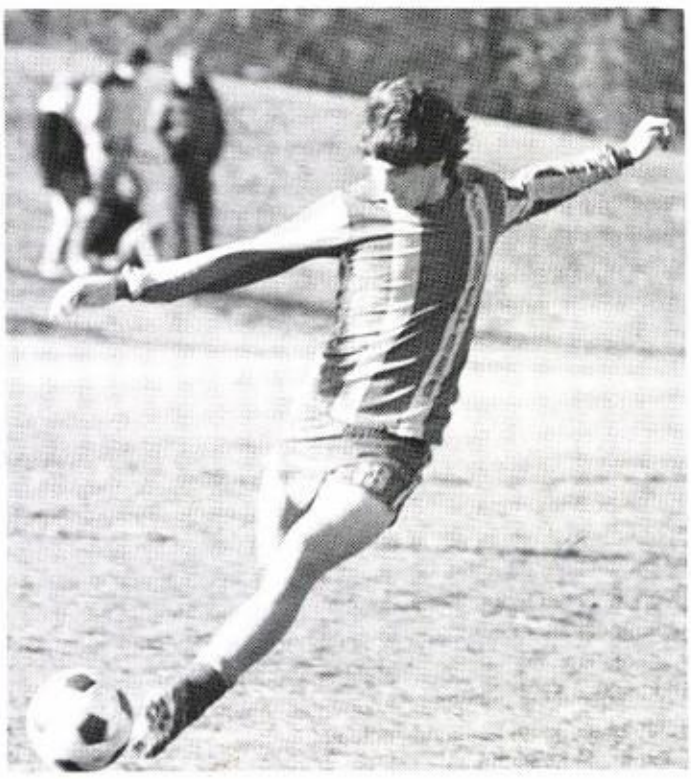
Miller comes back to help defense.



Arroyo sets for shot on goal.

MacDonald gets by Wash. defender.

Lazaridis beats Linc. player to ball.

FRANKFORD 4 — SEMI-FINAL — MASTBAUM 2

The Pioneers reached the final by defeating University City last Monday, 5-1, and then beating Mastbaum, 4-2, in Wednesday's semifinal game.

Pat Driscoll scored twice and Rob McDonald, Tom Honeyman and Vasil Pavel scored once each in the University City game. Against Mastbaum, McDonald and Rob Miller each had two goals.

The Pioneers have an illustrious history in the Public League over the last two decades, having won seven championships and finished second six times. The Eagles' success has come largely in the last decade: titles in 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1984 and 1986.

Tuesday's game marks the end of a successful first season for Frankford coach (and alumnus) Bill Snyder, who left Holy Ghost Prep to replace Jules Piston, who retired after 16 seasons.

"I enjoyed it," said Snyder, reflecting on his first season as a Public League coach. "I didn't know what to expect at the start of the season, but I knew I had good talent because I'd seen the kids over the winter. I was hoping I could polish them."

Among the standouts on this year's team, Snyder mentioned fullbacks Al Schaefer and Franko Carter, who filled in at a position that had been hit hard by graduation.

"They were the most improved players," said Snyder. "They filled the holes and did a great job this year."

High-scorer, Rob MacDonald, is closely guarded.

Washington faces Frankford in showdown of giants for title

FRANKFORD 2 WASHINGTON 1

Frankford wins Public soccer title

In fact, twice earlier in Frankford's Public League soccer championship game with Washington yesterday, MacDonald was presented with high lobs right in front of the Washington goal, only to head the ball up and over the net.

MacDonald knew what was wrong. After all, he didn't tally a team-leading 17 goals by just being lucky.

"I had to get up in the air and get my head down on the ball," said the senior.

With less than a minute remaining in regulation, MacDonald took a great pass from Vasil Pavel off a direct kick, and, remembering his own advice, headed the ball perfectly into the net to send Pioneers past the Eagles, 2-1, for the league championship.

"I finally got my head down," said a jubilant MacDonald. "I should have scored the other times, too."

Frankford coach Bill Snyder, whose team lost to the Eagles, 1-0, during the regular season, was just as thrilled for MacDonald, who collected two goals and an assist in the Pioneers' 4-2 semifinal win over Mastbaum.

"I'm really happy for Rob," said Snyder, who won the league title in his first year of Public League coaching. "I glad he got up there and put it in. I must have told him 18,000 times to get his head up and over the ball."

MacDonald had an assist on Frankford's first goal. Tom Honeyman fed MacDonald on the right wing, and the striker crossed the ball beautifully to Tom McCullom, who tucked away the easy shot 11 minutes, 10 seconds into the first half.

Frankford—Last season Nancy Kelly scored the goals and defenseman Debbie Schopfer stopped the opponents from scoring. Both are gone, and coach Mitch Kline has only four starters returning from a 13-1 squad. Three year starter Cathy Coleman is back in goal and with a new defense in front of her will be kept busy. Returning forwards Dawn Neville, Bonnie Beaton, and track star Karin Munz hope to fill the scoring gap. Among the newcomers freshman Michelle and Missy Dimitri, and Regina Crego should contribute.

"The thing with hockey is that experience is very important because these girls have never played it before coming here" ,said Kline, "we don't have much experience, but these girls are fighters."

"Cathy's been through a lot of games with us," Frankford coach Mitch Kline said. "This year's she's the glue keeping the defense together."

Coleman, a senior who is in her third season as the Pioneers' starting goaltender, has pasted shut the Pioneers' goal so far this season. In six games, Coleman has pasted six shutouts.

"She's just an outstanding athlete," Kline said of Coleman, the Northeast Neighbors Girls' Athlete of the Week. "She's a real gamer. She's a great competitor. She has a lot of invariables — a lot of heart. Things you just can't measure."

"She's had a great career here," Kline said of Coleman, who also plays basketball and softball at Frankford. "We're going to miss her an awful lot."

Final Summary

"We had a lot of opportunities with the ball inside the circle," said Frankford coach Mirch Kline. "You have to give their defense credit. They played very well."

Frankford, which won the team's regular-season meeting, 1-0, owned a 13-2 advantage in corners.

Lynn Stapler, Jennifer Lirzke and Rose Perry netted goals in the flick-offs as Northeast topped Frankford, 3-0, for the Public League title. The two teams battled to a 0-0 tie through regulation and a 10-minute overtime.

"The flickoffs put a lot of pressure on the goalie, and I don't think that's fair," said Kline. "Maybe when two teams play that even, maybe we should call them co-champs.

"But you can't take anything away from Northeast. They have a real good team and are well coached."

Despite ending its season on a losing note, Frankford's Kline considered the season a success.

"I really didn't expect the kids to be in this situation," he said. "It's a credit to the kids. They're just a great bunch of kids."

The Pioneers finished 11th, the second-best team from the Northeast.

"The girls were disappointed in their times," Kostura said. "This gets us ready for the divisionals."

Karin Munz (22:15), 31st, who was suffering from cramps in her side, crossed the line first for the Pioneers. She knocked 1:13 off her time from the beginning of the year.

Freshman Maggie Allmond (24:28) 65th, ran a strong race for her first championship.

"She's a girl I found in gym class," Kostura said. "She is highly motivated and really likes to run."

Following Allmond were Donna Domico (25:20), 70th, Kim Covington (26:09), 77th, and Pam Miller.

Kostura felt that the team did not run as well as it could have in the championship, possibly because of the pressure.

"They psyched themselves out," Kostura said. "They actually talked themselves out of doing good."

The coach found it hard to train for the 2.9-mile course at Belmont Plateau because Frankford is flat, street running is necessary, and she has only a small turnout of runners. But she was very happy with the team's desire to improve.

"They just wanted to run faster than they did last year, which they did," Kostura said.

Play-Off Summary

Frankford (7-7) rallied after being down two games to none Friday in the first round of the playoffs but was unable to put it together in the fifth and deciding match in an upset by University City.

"We had the lead in the fifth, but our serve went a little foul on us," Pioneer coach Donna Barnett said. "It became really frustrating. They knew they could beat University City."

Playing at home, University City won the first two games, 15-7, 15-13. Then Frankford pulled itself together and won the next two games, 15-7, 15-4. But in the last game, Frankford gave up the lead and lost 15-10.

The captain of the team and all-Public candidate Zeffi Angelikas had an excellent season.

Three players who were new to the varsity team but put in good performances were Heather Sinclair, Leiya Harvard and Kari-ann Ryan.

Sinclair moved up from junior varsity when a starter could not play because of medical reasons. Harvard also moved up from the junior varsity and Barnett said, "She picked up a real good game sense. (She is) always an attacker."

"We didn't have a very tall team, so we had to really work with what we had," Barnett said.

All-Public, Zeffi Angelikas, sets to her.

Frankford coach Mike Fitzpatrick is looking forward to his third season at the helm. Fitzpatrick says his team should be ready to challenge the top teams.

"We are a young team building character," Firzpatrick said. "The girls are really hustling, and they are gunning for this season."

"I'm blessed to have a girl like Judy back," Firzpatrick said. "She excelled last year, and I expect a strong season from her this year."

The returning nucleus will be made up of sophomores Katie Walker (butterfly), Kim Covington (breastrstroke) and Patrice Williams (freesryle); senior Veronica Agnew (breaststroke, freestyle) and junior Kim Ellior (backstroke).

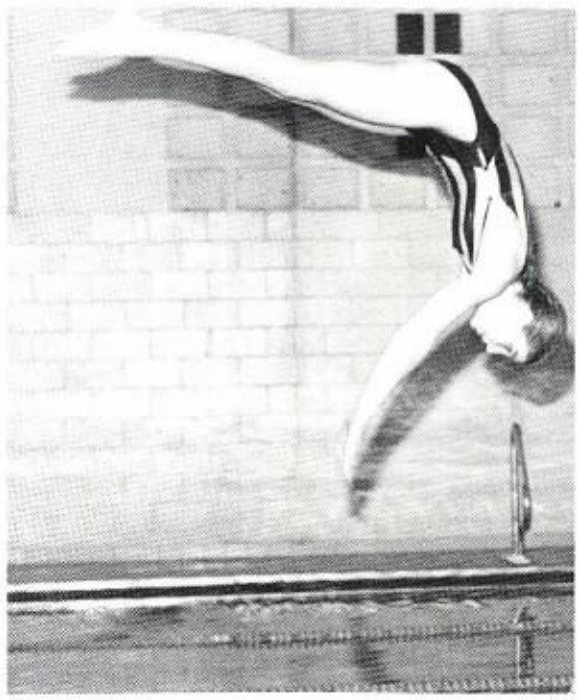
Judy McCrudden



Brittan Condran

Although his team has been struggling, with only one win in its first four meets, Frankford head coach Mike Fitzpatrick has been happy with the team's progress.

Sophomore Kati Walker recently set a school record in the 100-yard individual medley with a time of 1:30.22. Walker, a co-caprain, also has looked good in the 100-yard freestyle, where she finished first with a time of 1:14.7 in a 48-17 defeat ro Roxborough. A versatile swimmer, Walker also has made contributions in the butrerfly this season.

Brit Codron, another sophomore, has steadily improved her diving ability. "She is learning a new dive every day," Firzparrick said. "I have been very happy with her progress, and she works extremely hard."

WARLEYS KEYS FOR FRANKFORD

Frankford:

Head Coach—Vince Miller

Last year—17-4 overall; 11-12 league

Returnees—Jamie Ross, team captain and the Pioneers scoring leader, heads the list of returning players. Also back this year are guard Nate Emmons, Kevin Newton and Jeff Mack.

Newcomers—Jason and Carlin Warley; While at Philmont, Jason scored nearly 1,000 points; Cori Lewis and Barry Lewis, both forwards; Tony Davis, Aaron Cottman and Devin Foreman, all forwards.

Key Players—Obviously the Warleys; Carlin at 6-6 will be expected to be the Pioneers "big man" in the middle, while brother Jason handles the running game. But the most important player may be Ross. Ross is the team's on-the-court leader, and will be expected to help the team with his experience and outside shooting.

Strengths—Depth and strong starters. The Pioneer bench has experience and talent, and the starters are able to score a lot of points. Their size and defense are also good, and their talent enables them to play a number of styles, either run and shoot or ball control and defense.

Weaknesses—Inexperience of the Warleys. These guys have to blend in with the Pioneer system with only a month of practice. It is also likely that they may not have encountered at Philmont the physical style of play the Public League often features.

Outlook—Should be in running for "all the marbles" as head coach Miller said. Clearly, with an abundance of talent already, the Pioneers would have been contenders. With the Warleys, "all the marbles" isn't beyond their reach. Surprisingly, the key to Frankford's success may lie with Ross' performance. Still, Frankford should be one of the top four clubs in the Public League.

Frankford easily beats Gratz, King

Frankford's Dave Ferrizzi showed this week why he is one of the top wrestlers in the Public League by brutalizing opponents at weights of 126 and 131 and not letting anyone score a point against him.

In the Pioneers' 47-15 victory over Gratz on Wednesday, Ferrizzi (131) won a technical decision, 15-0. And in the Pioneers' 63-12 victory over King on Friday, Ferrizzi won another technical in 1:40.

For the Pioneers (4-1), the mat was a good place to be last week.

Reggie Blount moved up a weight class and won by decision against Gratz and won by a technical fall against King. Jerry Santa (190) pinned both his opponents this week.

"We are getting better than we were in December," coach Bob Peffle said. "We should be in pretty good wrestling shape for the playoffs."

"I don't see us beating a veteran team like Lincoln and Olney at this point," Frankford coach Bob Peffie said. But the Pioneers had no trouble defeating an inexperienced team like Edison, 66-12, on Wednesday.

Public League

Girls B'Ball

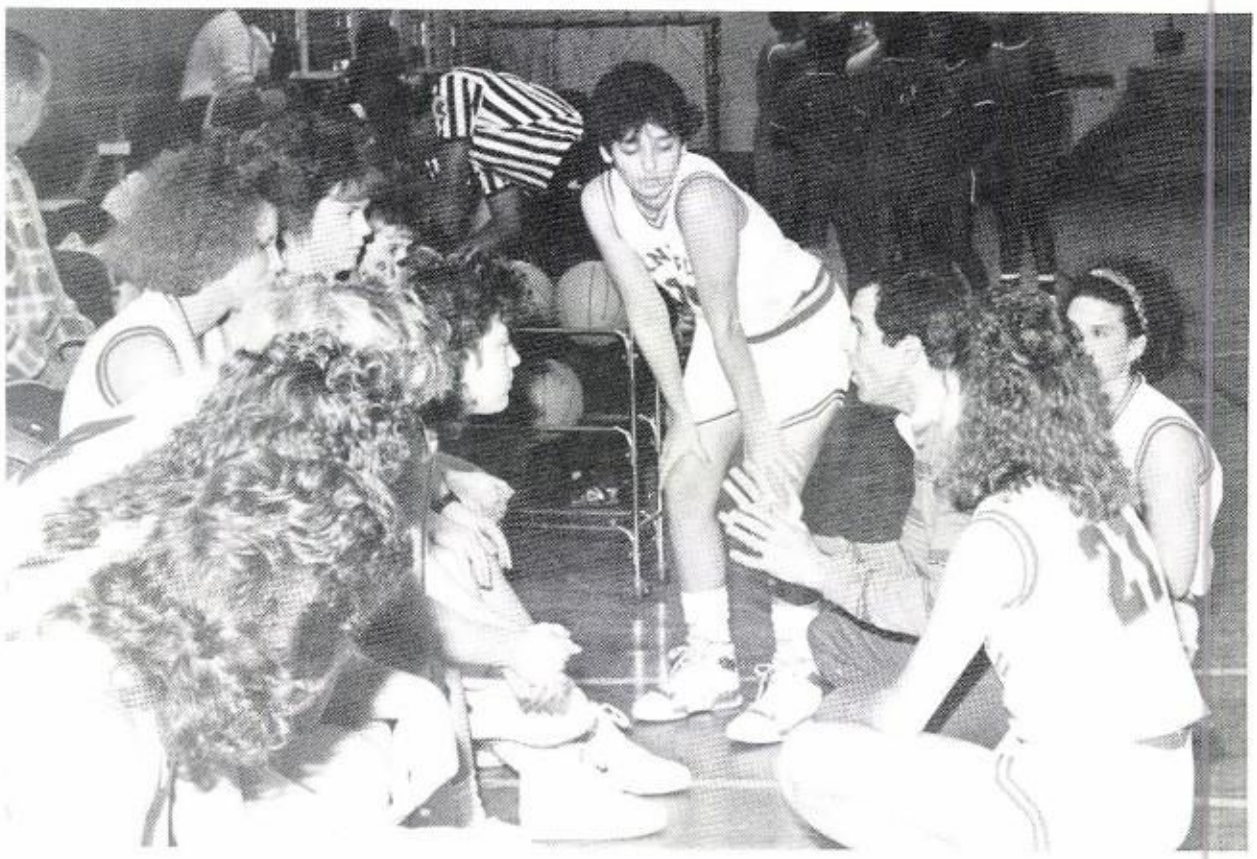
Coach: Mitch Kline

Key Players: Returning is 1986-87 News Gleaner Public League Player of the Year Cathy Coleman, a 5-11 forward. At center will be 6-1 junior Linda Volz, who with Coleman are the only returning starters. At the other forward slot will be 5-7 junior Leiya Harvard. Guard is the question mark, both starters have little experience. Playing the point will be junior Zeffi Angelikas and the shooting guard will be senior Bonnie Beaton.

Strengths: Height is their big advantage. The twin towers of Coleman and Volz will be quite a dilemma to other teams. Angelikas and Beaton have three-point range. No matter what, Kline somehow always finds a way for a winning record.

Weaknesses: The heart and soul of last year's team, Debbie Schopfer, is now a starting forward at Holy Family College. Can the guards handle the intense defensive pressure they will face is a major question mark.

Evaluation: Frankford seems to be as good as last year. If Volz develops into the dominant center Kline thinks she could be they might even contest Dobbins for the title. Then again, if the guard line falls apart they could fall to .500.



Mr. Kline gives encouragement during "time out."

Center Linda Volz contiues to improve,' posting 23 points against Southern and 17 points, 14 rebounds against King.

"With each game, Linda is getting more and more confident, and the other girls are starting to look to her more often," Frankford coach Mitch Kline said.

The Pioneers (4-4 overall, 3-1 league) also got effective inside play Friday from Cathy Coleman (11 points) and Leiya Harvard (6 points, 9 rebounds). Coleman scored 12 points in the win over Southern.

Frankford (8-4 overall) captured its seventh consecutive victory and improved to 7-1 in the Public League Blue Division with a thrilling 41-39 overtime win at Bok on Friday.

Linda Volz (13 points) converted both ends of a one-and-one free throw opportunity to tie the game with 1 second remaining in regulation, and the junior center scored 4 more points in the extra session before teammate Leiya Harvard (11 points) netted the winning basket.

"The kids showed a lot of character," Frankford coach Mitch Kline said. "It was a good win on the road because Bok is a tough place to play."

Volz (17 points) paced her teammates to double figures on Wednesday when Frankford trampled host West Philadelphia, 62-39. Bonnie Beaton, Cathy Coleman and Harvard each scored 10 points.

Frankford wins Public bowling

Frankford, behind Billy Hancock, downed Germantown yesterday at Erie Lanes, 2,473-2,327, to win its second straight Public League boys' bowling championship.

Hancock, who posted the highest average during the league's regular season (190), was the top vote-getter for the all-Public team. His brother, Scott, and teammate Leo Gillen were other Pioneers on the all-Public team.

Wrestling

Olney's James Clacks (103 pounds), Rico Katindig (119) and Larry Fountain (145) notched pins as the host Trojans topped Frankford, 35-33, in a Public League semifinal match.

Olney will face Lincoln, a 31-24 winner over Central yesterday, in the league championship Friday, at 3 p.m., at a neutral site.

Clacks' first-period fall in the opening match keyed the Trojans and helped Olney jump out to a 18-0 lead.

Frankford. The Pioneers (11-2 last season) slipped past 1986 champion Washington, 3-1, in the title game and could again be the team to beat.

Coach Doris Kerker has a roster stocked with veterans, but Frankford's real strength may be in the players' attitude.

"They seem to get along really well," Kerker said. "It's a real pleasure to coach them, and I think their closeness shows in their play on the field."

The Pioneers have senior pitcher Claire Hohlfeld and junior catcher Zeffi Angelikas returning, along with senior first baseman Dawn Neville and senior Jennifer Coyle, who is starting her third season at second base.

Others who will figure prominently in Frankford's success are senior Cathy Coleman, a shortfield last season who will likely move to shortstop; back-up senior infielders Bonnie Bearon and Tracy Settle, senior outfielder Jane Huffnagle and Linda Volz, a power-hitting junior whose bat should find her a spot in the lineup.

Pioneers a contender in tough Division A

Frankford

Dick Connolly has an ready answer when people ask him whether the Frankford baseball team feels any pressure to extend the school's string of championships.

"I just say, 'What about the track team?' " the Frankford coach said. "... I don't feel any pressure, though. I've been in coaching too long to worry about things like that."

That's not to say that Frankford can't add the Public League's baseball title to this school year's collection of championships (football, soccer, basketball and bowling). In fact, some coaches have said that the Pioneers look like the top team in Division A — the league's better half.

"That's news to me," Connolly said. "It's probably based on the fact that we have some people coming back, but in baseball, that doesn't necessarily apply."

Connolly's 23d Frankford team will include four seniors who started last year. In all, the coach expects about 13 seniors — an unusually high number — to make the varsity.

Bobby Higginson, who led the team in hitting with a .415 average last season, is back at second base. Mark Dooling, a veteran catcher and infielder, batted .378. Dave Samuel, a starting infielder and pitcher, hit .304, and he also compiled a 4-0 record with a 2.45 earned run average. Jon Syzc, the returning first baseman, hit .248.

The 1987 Pioneers went 10-2 in the league and 14-4 overall. Then Roxborough, routed them, 25-14, in the first round of the playoffs.

"They really killed us," Connolly said, "and we thought we had a pretty good team."

The toughest loss for the Pioneers might be Ralph Marano, a pitcher and outfielder who made all-Public. He hit .400 and fashioned a 4-1 record on the mound. Now, most of the pitching duties will fall to Samuel and two other seniors. Tom Honeyman had a 3-2 record in '87, and Connolly also expects to use him as an outfielder and utility infielder. Dave Boice (2-1) figures to get a fair amount of work, too.

The realignment of the Public League should make this season even more challenging for Frankford, since the Pioneers were placed in the stronger division. There won't be any rest periods on the schedule, and Connolly will need a deep pitching staff to cope with constant competition.

The Pioneers will open their league schedule on April 11 at Lincoln.

VOL. 101, NO. 1 | FRANKFORD HIGH SCHOOL, PHILADELPHIA, PA 19124 | NOVEMBER, 1987

Frankford Hosts School Board Tonight

by Jennifer Misko

Tonight the School Board will meet at Frankford between six and nine o'clock p.m. The main purpose of the Board meeting at Frankford is to give the community an opportunity to take an active role in the educating process. All faculty, parents, and students are welcome to attend and participate in the meeting.

A reception will also be held between six and seven o'clock, hosted by District Superintendent Dr. Edmund Forte. All community representatives and school district officials are welcome. The meeting will commence promptly at seven o'clock.

The idea behind the Board's evening meeting is to provide the community with an opportunity to meet the board members. It will give the public a chance to observe and understand the board's obligations and goals in the education of the young people today. The meeting offers an inside view of the projects and programs that are underway throughout the School District of Philadelphia.

The Board meetings are held twice a month with the intent to upgrade the quality of education currently being offered. The participation of the community at this Frankford meeting is essential in furthering the development of the Philadelphia Public School System. Issues such as the raising of the grade point average from 1.5 to 1.75 will affect all Frankford students greatly. We need student body cooperation. Frankford invites all interested community members to attend the Board meeting tonight. Getting involved is the key to unlocking the unlimited potentials of today's youth and tomorrow's future.

ATTENTION!

The Army JROTC Program at Frankford was established in 1979 as a one period per day major elective subject.

The course stresses drill and ceremonies, leadership, self-confidence, communication skills, discipline, history, first aid, and the organization of the military. Students may select the course for 3 years with no obligation to pursue an Army career or an ROTC program in college. Each student is required to wear the Army uniform on Wednesday during the school year. The uniforms are supplied by the Army at no charge to the student.

Activities for the JROTC include an annual banquet, a trip to Fort Dix, and an end of the year inspection by military personnel.

HONORARY

GRADUATE

Mr. Harry Broadbent

1988

Frankford High School welcomes oldest alumnus

With overwhelming and sincere enthusiasm hundreds of 12th grade students of Frankford High School welcomed its newest member and the school's oldest alumnus, Harry Broadbent, to the senior class last Monday morning.

A resident of Burholme, the young Broadbent studied commercial courses, which were the schools version of the present business course of study, in a six-room farmhouse located near Oakland and Wakeling Sts.

However, at the age of 16, Broadbent had to drop out of school in order to find a job and help support his family financially.

"In those days, graduating from high school was a great honor," he said. "It was like graduating from college these days," he added.

Met at concert

According to Hackenyos, he met Broadbent at a concert at the All Saints Episcopal Church, Loney St. and Algon Ave. When Hackenyos discovered that Broadbent was a Frankford High School Alumnus he encouraged Broadbent to return to the school and address the Freshman class at the installation ceremony.

Drawing on his speech at the installation ceremony and the awarding of an honorary diploma to Broadbent at the ceremony, Bonnie Beaton, Senior Class president said, "Today, we the class of 1988, wish to honor Harry Broadbent personally."

"We, the 122nd Class of Frankford High School, in our own way, hope you will let us get to know you better," Beaton said. "It is my privilege and pleasure as president of the 122nd Class to declare you a Senior of the Frankford High School," she said as she presented Broadbent with the class pin.

Broadbent was inducted into the Old Guard, a Frankford High School Alumni organization for graduates who have been out of the school for 50 or more years by student David Bell.

Invited to prom

Laura Lawson invited Broadbent to the senior prom. "This ticket is a token of the esteem we have for you," Lawson said, as she handed Broadbent the admission ticket.

A senior luncheon invitation was presented to Broadbent by Dawn Neville who noted that "Some special pictures and today's story," will be included in the 1988 yearbook, which is given to the students at that luncheon.

Stating that the school paper, the High Way will include a story of Beaton in its November edition, Nikki Davis gave Broadbent a copy of the school paper and promised to forward him a copy of the November edition.

Broadbent who moved to Olney and resided there several years resides at the Baptist Home, 8300 Roosevelt Blvd., with his wife.

In addition, Mark Dooling presented Broadbent with a season pass to the school athletic events. Niccole Bracey inducted Broadbent into the Frankford High School Alumni Association.

Upon accepting the welcoming by the senior class, Broadbent praised the students for completing their high school courses.

Noting there were only 37 students who started at Frankford High School in 1910 and that the 55 students who began with him in February, 1911 were the first Commercial class at Frankford, Broadbent said, "Now, to make this tremendous class ia a great honor."

Broadbent stressed the importance of education, and said this Thanksgiving students should "Thank God for your parents and the faculty who have made it possible for you to be graduating and receiving your diploma."

Following the presentations, Broadbent said he hopes to be able to attend all of the events, but as an ordinary senior. "No more speeches. My knees won't stand that," he said.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The pages of this RECORD BOOK reflect the memories and history of the 122nd Class of FRANKFORT HIGH SCHOOL. The Record book staff would like to extend their appreciation to those who have contributed to make this yearbook for the Class of '88 a reality: Mr. Bill O'Brien, our Josten Publishing representative, our photographer, Charlie, from Charles Photo Services, and the faculty and staff of Frankford, and Mr. J. Litzke, our sponsor.

To the students of the 122nd Graduating Class, we salute you because without you, there would not have been the chance to make the 1988 RECORD a success.
